CALL FOR ABSTRACTS

The 2019 Pine Rest Depression Summit for Researchers and Clinicians Invites Presenters for its Poster Session

Pine Rest / Michigan State University recently joined the National Network of Depression Centers. This Summit is central to our goal of stimulating research and dissemination of the latest science on depression to our community and provides an opportunity for students, clinicians, and researchers to discuss the latest research on the prevention and treatment of depressive disorders.

The Depression Summit will be held Friday, April 26, 2019 at the Pine Rest Postma Center in Grand Rapids, MI. Information about confirmed speakers, registration, and travel/lodging will be coming soon. Current information is available at www.pinerest.org/depression-summit

Come learn more about collaborating with Pine Rest faculty on research and network with colleagues in the region who are engaged in depression research and practice.

Information for submitters:
Abstracts should present empirical research findings. It can be on any topic relevant to the prevention or treatment of mood disorders and related conditions (i.e. depression, bipolar disorders, and suicide). Previously presented Abstracts are permitted.

- Abstract text is limited to 500 words, excluding title and authors, and must be written in English.
- Abstracts should clearly describe the objective/hypothesis, methods/approach, results, and conclusion.
- Abstracts should include a list of all authors with institution affiliations, as well as the presenting author indicated.
- Abstracts must include a statement disclosing any conflicts of interest, financial or otherwise.
- Indicate whether the presenting author is a student, fellow/clinician, or researcher.
- Size limit - If accepted, posters may be no larger than 4' x 3'.

Abstracts are reviewed by members of the Depression Summit Scientific Program Committee. Decisions on abstract acceptance and other recognitions will be final.

Prizes will be awarded for best posters presented at the Summit.

Abstracts should be submitted to DepressionSummit@Pinerest.org by April 1, 2019. Presenters will be notified of decisions no later than April 15, 2019.