

You Have Rights When Receiving Mental Health Services.

Examples include:

- The right to be free from abuse or neglect by your treatment provider.
- To be treated with dignity and respect.
- To receive services suited to your condition and outlined in a written plan of services.
- To have your health information kept confidential.
- Access to your record.
- To be involved in your treatment planning.
- To be informed of the risks and benefits of the treatment before you agree (consent) to it. (Limitations apply if you are a minor or an adult with a legal guardian.)
- Not to be photographed, video or audio recorded, observed through one way glass or fingerprinted without your consent.
- To receive treatment in a safe and sanitary environment.
- To choose your mental health professional within the limits of available and appropriate staff.

You Have Rights When Receiving Mental Health Services.

Examples include:

- The right to be free from abuse or neglect by your treatment provider.
- To be treated with dignity and respect.
- To receive services suited to your condition and outlined in a written plan of services.
- To have your health information kept confidential.
- Access to your record.
- To be involved in your treatment planning.
- To be informed of the risks and benefits of the treatment before you agree (consent) to it. (Limitations apply if you are a minor or an adult with a legal guardian.)
- Not to be photographed, video or audio recorded, observed through one way glass or fingerprinted without your consent.
- To receive treatment in a safe and sanitary environment.
- To choose your mental health professional within the limits of available and appropriate staff.

You Have Rights When Receiving Mental Health Services.

Examples include:

- The right to be free from abuse or neglect by your treatment provider.
- To be treated with dignity and respect.
- To receive services suited to your condition and outlined in a written plan of services.
- To have your health information kept confidential.
- Access to your record.
- To be involved in your treatment planning.
- To be informed of the risks and benefits of the treatment before you agree (consent) to it. (Limitations apply if you are a minor or an adult with a legal guardian.)
- Not to be photographed, video or audio recorded, observed through one way glass or fingerprinted without your consent.
- To receive treatment in a safe and sanitary environment.
- To choose your mental health professional within the limits of available and appropriate staff.

Your Family Has A Right:

- To be treated with dignity and respect.
- To provide information to your treatment professional or team.
- To receive information about the general nature of disorders, available support groups and financial assistance.

These rights are based on Chapter 7 of the Michigan Mental Health Code and extend to all patients via Pine Rest policy. If you are interested in reading the full text of Chapter 7, please request it by calling the Recipient Rights Advisor.

If you have questions about these rights or believe your rights were violated, please call:

Recipient Rights Advisor
616.281.6363 ext. 2981 or 4415
or toll-free: 877.242.6981

pinerest.org

Your Family Has A Right:

- To be treated with dignity and respect.
- To provide information to your treatment professional or team.
- To receive information about the general nature of disorders, available support groups and financial assistance.

These rights are based on Chapter 7 of the Michigan Mental Health Code and extend to all patients via Pine Rest policy. If you are interested in reading the full text of Chapter 7, please request it by calling the Recipient Rights Advisor.

If you have questions about these rights or believe your rights were violated, please call:

Recipient Rights Advisor
616.281.6363 ext. 2981 or 4415
or toll-free: 877.242.6981

pinerest.org

Your Family Has A Right:

- To be treated with dignity and respect.
- To provide information to your treatment professional or team.
- To receive information about the general nature of disorders, available support groups and financial assistance.

These rights are based on Chapter 7 of the Michigan Mental Health Code and extend to all patients via Pine Rest policy. If you are interested in reading the full text of Chapter 7, please request it by calling the Recipient Rights Advisor.

If you have questions about these rights or believe your rights were violated, please call:

Recipient Rights Advisor
616.281.6363 ext. 2981 or 4415
or toll-free: 877.242.6981

pinerest.org